

Resources for further study and engagement

No Longer Strangers: Exploring Immigration Issues, by Forward Movement;

Who is my Neighbor?, by Samira Izadi Page, part of the “little books of guidance” series from Church Publishing;

Episcopal Migration Ministries offers free resources, including the following:

- General Convention Resolution 2018-D009: Set Forth Christian Principles to Guide Responses to Human Migration https://episcopalarchives.org/cgi-bin/acts/acts_resolution.pl?resolution=2018-D009;
- 2018-C003 Acts of Convention: Resolution # 2018-C033 \(episcopalarchives.org\)
- EMM Study & Worship Resources (includes curriculum for small groups, book discussion guides, prayer vigil, etc.) <https://episcopalmigrationministries.org/study/> ;

General Convention passed a Migration with Dignity resolution this summer;

An Episcopal Office of Government resource is Addressing Political Violence ;

For further research, review the MPI Profile of Haitian immigrants in the U.S. (Nov. 2023):

<https://www.migrationpolicy.org/article/haitian-immigrants-united-states> and a fact sheet on Temporary Protected Status (which is the legal authorization for most of the Haitians who have recently arrived in the US) - TPS-Fact-Sheet_October-2023.pdf \(immigrationforum.org\)